Richard (AKA, SANTA CLAUS)

Four~~score~~ and many years ago we entered this school, feelings low
The years went past, real slow
But they still aint over, so Ho, Ho, Ho!

To a real cool dude ever to ride on Honda "90"
and a good friend take it easy on the roads and Lang
(he can't stand it) good luck.

A black and white photograph of the front entrance of Sheffield High School. The building is a three-story structure with a central entrance featuring a large arched doorway with double doors. Above the entrance is a decorative pediment. The words "SHEFFIELD HIGH SCHOOL" are inscribed in large, capital letters above the entrance. The building has multiple windows on each floor, some with shutters. A set of wide stone steps leads up to the entrance. A small sign is visible on the right side of the building, and a metal railing is on the right side of the steps.

Dedication

Mr. Craig Hinchman

We, the Class of 1973, dedicate our yearbook to Mr. Craig Hinchman. Our class sincerely appreciates Mr. Hinchman's educational contributions to us in the areas of biology, chemistry, and physics, and we thank him for his direction of the Science Club, the Youth Center, and the Chess Club.

We also wish Mr. Hinchman the best of luck in his future endeavors.

Rich.

To a nice underclassman, be good and good luck
in the future.

Always.

Congratulations! With the receipt of your high school diploma, you have successfully completed the first challenge that society has given you to complete. You have completed that challenge because you believe in yourself.

Back of every great civilization, behind all of the power and wealth, is something as powerful as it is substantial; a set of ideas, attitudes, and convictions, and the confidence that those ideas and convictions are workable. No nation can achieve greatness unless it believes in something, and unless that something has the moral dimensions to sustain a great civilization. If the light of our belief flickers out, then all the productive capacity and all the know-how and all the power of our nation will be as nothing.

Now that you are graduated, you once more have been presented a challenge. That challenge is to believe in yourself and your nation to the degree that this country will be a better country because you are here.

 and divide between truth and error."

Class Prophecy

Let's look ten years into the future to 1983 to see how the members of the class of 1973 have fared.

Several new industries have sprung up in Sheffield since our class graduated. Mark Brush is the President of the "Brush Corporation" which manufactures brushes. The main factory for the production of meat pounders is located in Sheffield and was founded by Jim Pierson, who has since become a millionaire. Speaking of millionaires, lumber tycoon Rick Zandi recently took a trip to his homeland, Japan. Karen French was the stewardess on his flight. It is reported by Garry Studer, roving reporter for the "Sheffield World News," that a romance may be brewing between these two people.

If you read the "Sheffield World News," you may have read the Dear Debi column, which is written by Debi Engard. Debby Crisman has gone occult and is also writing for the "Sheffield World News." Her column is Crisman Predicts. (Maybe she should have written this prophecy.) The paper is owned and edited by Debbie Cashmere.

The B&B Country Club, owned and operated by Bob Blymiller and John Buck, was recently opened. Wendy Blymiller, "the girl with the golden voice," sang for its opening. Wendy's thousand dollar dress was designed by world famous fashion designer Sabrina Carlson. Her hair was styled by Sandy Bean. It was announced that pro-golf champion Terry Moldovan would be at the club within the next week to give some golf pointers.

Also in the world of sports, we find Chris Thornton and Connie Bednar in training for the 1984 Olympics. The girls are members of the U. S. Women's volleyball team. Mancy Miller is captain of the Sheffield Wolverettes, the world champion roller derby team. Recently, the Triple Crown was won by that famous horse, Brandy Jr. Brandy is trained and owned by Teri Duell.

After having thirteen automobile accidents and breaking every bone in his body, Jeff Grubbs has turned to professional car racing. He won the 1982 "Indianapolis 500" and broke all previous records.

The Sheffield Medical Center has been taken over by women. Susan Barris is chief surgeon at the Center. She is aided by registered nurse Laurie Donick and practical nurse Linda Mueller. Kim Grubbs is secretary to the new dentist, Shirley Miller.

Police Chief, Cecil Poole, has just been discharged from the Medical Center for injuries he sustained while trying to hold down a riot at the University of Sheffield. When the president and founder of the University, Tim Leichtenburger, was asked about the riot by Deputy Roger Rockwell, he replied that he felt the problems were due to outside agitators, Mike McAvoy and Kris Weigel. Rockwell promptly arrested McAvoy and Weigel, and the trial will be held next month with Judge Larry Wolfe presiding. David Swanson will be the defense attorney, and Joel La Barr will be the prosecutor. Swanson feels confident that he will win his case since he has never lost before. Pam Johnson is Swanson's secretary and left-hand girl.

If you watch the talk show, "Late at Night with Linda" starring Linda Chase, perhaps you saw architect Glenn Carlson show his plans for the Sheffield Planetarium which will be built by "Brian Jefferson and Associates." Beauty Contest winner Cindy Austin, "Miss Red-Head 1983" was special guest of the show. Sheila Schuler was voted "Mother of the Year" for the third consecutive year. She still has no children of her own.

Finally, in the field of entertainment, we hear that Nick O'Donish has become leader of "The Nasty Five." The group is presently appearing at Carnegie Hall.

My Most Embarrassing Moment

- Garry - When there was a fire drill while I was in the shower after gym class
- Sabrina - When I had to undress in front of the audience as part of the Senior Play
- Terry - When I added two numbers together and got the wrong number... I meant to swear to myself, but it slipped
- Rick - The time a querr walked into the restroom while Kevin, Sta, and I were in there
- Joel - The time I was backing up to pick up a muffler and I hit the guardrails
- Mark - When Orville and I were hunting and I asked the dog - as if he were a human - if he had gotten the rabbit
- Orville - The time I locked my keys in the car at Kinzua and had to hitchhike home
- Laurie - The time in second grade when the teacher wouldn't let me go to the restroom - what could I say?
- Mike - The time in second grade when I wouldn't stop sucking my thumb the teacher wrapped a huge cloth around it.
- Glenn - I'm embarrassed because I've never been embarrassed in my whole life.
- Roger - The day in grade school when I got caught making an obscene gesture at the teacher
- Jeff - The time on the sixth grade field trip when I got a lot of kids lost in the fire escape of one of the towers
- I had to use my flash cubes so we could see
- P. J. - When I was running past the opposing team's fans and I wiped out in front of all of them
